Exhibition: Dolls

-21st May- 13th June, 2009

Dolls are made to be a representation of human. It captures and represents a particular moment of our ever changing emotion. They are often so similar to us but yet, everyone knows very well that it is only a doll, not a living body as we are. Because of this subtle relationship between dolls and us, they are frequently used as a media to express emotions deep inside our hearts.

In May, 2009, Moon Gallery presented four young and uprising artists from Korea with the theme Dolls. Park Dae Cho created different moods for a doll with porcelain skin with different shades and tones in his light- box installation, while Kim Ihn, Jo Young Pyo and Oh Mi Kyung painted diverse artworks on the subject.

We would like to thank you all for joining us here in Moon Gallery to experience the exciting and every vibrant Korean art scene with the theme- Dolls.
